All slates used for Slate Expectations are old slate roofing shingles removed from houses and barns in New England. Many were on roofs for over 75 years. Each piece is hand-cut and hand-painted with an original design created by me. All can be displayed outdoors as they are sprayed with a protective acrylic spray. Most pieces can be personalized with names, house numbers and sayings.

I have been in business for over 20 years and you should never have a problem with fading or paint washing off with any of my slates. Just check your leather hanger periodically and you should be fine for many years. I hope you enjoy my designs and creations.
